MRS. MONTE WADE MAYS
the former Miss Linda Jo Moses

Wed In Evening Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Linda Jo Moses to Mr. Monte Wade Mays was solemnized Saturday evening, December 16, at half after seven o'clock in the Memorial United Methodist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas Moses, Jr., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Eugene Mays, all of Appomattox.

The Reverend Henry Elwood Riley, Jr., pastor of the church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Red poinsettias,white tapers in brass cathedral candelabra against a background of palms and a lighted Chrismon tree, decorated the altar area of the church for the exchange of vows. Red poinsettias and palms in the narthex and lighted candles in pewlabras with white satin ribbon marking the reserved pews, completed the decorations in the church for the Christmas wedding.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Walter Henson Carson, of Appomattox, Organist; and Mrs. Paul Cave Mezzo-Soprano of Farmville, who sang "We Have Only Just Begun" (Williams and Nichols), "Whither Thou Goest" (Singer) and "The Lord's Prayer" (Malotte). Traditional organ selections were used by the organist including, "Gesu Bambino" (Yon), "A Mediaeval Lullaby" (XIV Century Melody), "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" (Bach), "Lullaby" (Mozart) and "Christmas Pastorale" (Demarest).

Escorted by her father and given in marriage by her mother and father, the bride wore a traditional wedding gown of silk organza and Alencon Lace over taffeta, designed with an empire molded bodice with short sleeves and a scalloped deep yoke of lace. The slim skirt was traced in appliques of lace ending in a scalloped hemline. Emphasizing the Empire high rise waist was a self bow encircled with seed pearls. The very full double circular chapel train falls from the deepened back yoke of lace. She wore a Mantilla of embroidered English net banded in Alencon Lace. Her only jewelry was a diamond pendant which was a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a traditional cascade bouquet of white butterfly rose buds and starburst pom poms, centered with a bridal orchid and showered with stephanotis.

Miss Janet Susan Moses was her sister's maid of honor, and Mrs. Harry Eugene Ranson was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Stephanie Bussey of Roanoke and Miss Virginia Godwin Lusardi of Brookneal, both cousins of the bride; Mrs. Jay Kelly of Marion and Mrs. Harold Carter of Lynchburg, both sisters of the bridegroom; Miss Susan Lindler of Williamsburg and Miss Carol Schreffler of Chester.

The honor attendants and the bridesmaids wore ankle length gowns of Christmas red taffeta with an empire molded bodice and long full sleeves with a wide cuff. The high neckline was finished with a small rolled collar and the rounded yoke was accented with a narrow ruffle.

They all carried traditional bouquets of mistletoe, showered with white satin bells.

Miss Martha Byrd Haley, the flower girl, wore a long white dress accented with a red velvet sash and red slippers.

Mr. Walter Henson Carson, Jr. and Mr. Charles Alexander Norfleet served as aleolytes.

Mr. Gilbert Eugene Mays served his son as best man. Ushers were Mr. Irie Mays, brother of the bridegroom, Mr. Charles Thomas Moses, III, brother of the bride; Mr. Walter Carson, Mr. Gary Jamerson, Mr. Stephen Crawford, Mr. Michael Seay and Mr. Dean Paulette.

The bride's mother chose for the occasion a long soft green gown with front trim of gold braid with rhinestones and her shoulder corsage was a cream cymbidium orchid.

The bridegroom's mother was attired in a long gown of pale yellow and her corsage was a green cymbidium orchid.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas Moses, Jr. were hosts for the reception, entertaining in the Fellowship Hall of the Church which was festive for the occasion with magnolia, red poinsettias, white lighted tapers and white satin bells.

Mr. Jay Kelly, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was the pianist for the reception.

Assisting with the wedding and reception were Mrs. Cecil Houchens, Mrs. Crawford Davidson, Mrs. Mitchell Lewis, Mrs. Raymond Jamerson, Mrs. Robert Hubbard, Mrs. William Burke, Mrs. Larry Young, Mrs. James Carson, Mrs. Uriel Carson, Mrs. Robert Walden, Mrs. James Keys and Misses Jamie Kay Carson, Mary Elizabeth King, and Betty Trent.

Assisting the hosts in entertaining the guests at the reception were Mrs. John Scott Moore of Richmond; the sisters of Mrs. Moses - Mrs. M. A. Hunter of Raleigh, West Virginia, Mrs. G. W. Taylor of Kingsport, Tennessee, Mrs. M. W. Drinkard of Oakville, Mrs. H. B. Smith of Lynchburg and Mrs. L. K. Bussey of Roanoke. Also the sisters of Mr. Moses - Mrs. V. J. Lusardi and Mrs. W. R. Herndon of Brookneal and Mrs. H. W. Babcock of Appomattox.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox High School. She attended Westhampton College in Richmond for 2 years and is a member of the junior class at Longwood College in Farmville where she is majoring in Elementary Education.

The bridegroom is also a graduate of Appomattox High School and was graduated from Lynchburg College in May with a B.S. Degree in Business Administration. He is employed in Appomattox.

For her wedding trip, Mrs. Mays chose a kelly green knit dress with red and black trim; an off white coat and coordinated accessories. Her corsage was a white bridal orchid.

After a southern wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Appomattox.

After-Rehearsal Party Honors Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Mays entertained at an after rehearsal party Friday evening, December 15, in the Woodman of the World Hall honoring their son, Monte Wade Mays and his fiance, Linda Jo Moses, whose wedding was an event of Saturday, December 16, at Memorial United Methodist Church.

Those attending other than the honored couple were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas Moses, parents of the bride, members of the wedding party and a host of close friends and relatives.

MRS. LARRY STEWART BLUME
the former Miss Donna Leah Gull

Wed In Double Ring C

Miss Donna Leah Gull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Taylor Gull of Appomattox, Va., became the bride of Larry Stewart Blume at 6 p.m. Saturday, December 16, 1972, at Stevens Memorial Baptist Church in Newport News, Virginia.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Blume of Charlotte, North Carolina.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. Gwynn Davis. Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Earl T. Connelly, aunt of the bride, pianist; Mrs. Frances Joyce, organist and Mr. Buddy Poe and Mrs. Sue Phillips, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a formal gown of polyester crepe in an empire style, with a scoop neckline and fitted bodice lavished with seed pearls and re-embroidered lace. The sleeves were long and fitted, with lace appliques, and ending in bridal points. The skirt was A-line with a large applique of pearled lace at the hem and a small bow at the waist. The full chapel train was detachable and was also adorned with large lace appliques. Her veil was a chantilly train mantilla completely encircled with lace and held by a camelot hat of lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations.

Mrs. Clarence C. Poe, junior, sister of the bride, was honor attendant. She wore a slipper length gown of burgandy velvet with a scoop neckline accented by imported lace. She carried a bouquet of white

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST
Rufus B. McDannel, Pastor
Sabbath School Lesson for Dec. 17 - 23, No. 12

Subject; The Church Awaiting the Advent - Scripture Text "Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;) and let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works." Hebrews 10:23, 24.

In previous lessons, study has been given to signs to Christ's imineni return. Bible prophecies concerning, the last days of this world's history are now meeting their fulfillment. But recognition of the promised signs is of little value unless such knowledge leads to appropriate action. Only as these warnings are heeded can they prove a blessing to the church. It is possible for Christians to be so familiar with omens of the Advent that their urgent challenge will be muted. By a fresh outpouring of the Holy Spirit it must sense anew the mighty meaning of the "Signs of the Times" and be led thereby to full repentance of sin and a total dedication to God.

Lesson Outline - Part 1. The Peril of the Church. Luke 21:34,35. "Believers are warned to be on their watch lest the coming of Christ overtake them unexpectedly as indeed it will come upon all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth". Part 2. Conflict of the Church. Matt. 25:5. "While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept." Christian today would do well to remember the heavenly Bridegrooms delay is not due to a lack of preparedness on His part. He could have come long ago had His people been ready to welcome Him, and had they been faithful in completing their task of preparing the world for His coming." Part 3. Call for a Awakening. Isa. 51:9; 52:1. Please read both chapters. The Lord called for His people to awake. It was not God who was slumbering but the people. In awaiting the Advent believers must prepare by receiving the "beautiful garments" of Christ's righteousness. Part 4 Call to Work. Eph 2:8-10 "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God; not of works, lest any man should boast. For we are His workmanship, created in Christ unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. Part. 5 God's Call to Holiness I John 3:2,3 "Beloved, now are we the son's of God, and it doth yet appear what we shall be, but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is, and every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure." Part. 6 Growing in Grace. 2 Peter 3:18. "But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ." There is no Bible sanctification for those who cast a part of the truth behind them . . .

THE SHEPHERDS ARE TOLD OF A SAVIOR LUKE 2:8-17
From
THE LIVING BIBLE

"That night some shepherds were in the fields outside the village guarding their flocks of sheep. Suddenly an angel appeared among them, and the landscape shone bright with the glory of the Lord. They were badly frightened, but the angel reassured them.

"Don't be afraid!" he said. "I bring you the most joyful news ever announced, and it is for everyone! The Savior—yes, the Messiah, the Lord—has been born tonight in Bethlehem! How will you recognize him? You'll find a baby wrapped in a blanket lying in a manger!"

Suddenly, the angel was joined by a vast host of others—the armies of heaven—praising God:

"Glory to God in the highest heaven," they sang, "and peace on earth for all those pleasing him."

When this great army of angels had returned again to heaven, the shepherds said to each other, "Come on! Let's go to Bethlehem! Let's see this wonderful thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about."

They ran to the village and found their way to Mary and Joseph. And there was the baby, lying in the manger. The shepherds told everyone what had happened and what the angel had said to them about this child.
